

Sample "Emergency" Engine Operation Log

Aside from true emergency operation, as defined by the EPA RICE MACT Rule, "emergency" engines are only allowed to operate 100 hours per calendar year. Typical reasons for operation, aside from emergency situations, include maintenance and reliability testing. Maintain this record for a period of five (5) years.

[illegible]